MOTIVATIONAL THEATRE, INC.

CELEBRATING THE POWER OF THE HUMAN SPIRIT

Sunday, September 25, 2011

Historical Society Auditorium

25 South Washington Street, Easton

4-7pm • $30 in advance, $35 at the door

The Hugh Gregory Gallagher Motivational Theatre would like to get to know you at our first-ever FRIENDraiser. Yes, you read that correctly—emphasis on Friend. Motivational Theatre is a non-profit organization dedicated to raising public awareness of disability issues and discrimination in our society through the power of theater.

Join our constellation as we celebrate the September 30th Eastern Shore debut of “Night Sky” by Susan Yankowitz at the Cadby Studio Theatre in Wye Mills, presented by Motivational Theatre, Peake Players of Chesapeake College, and Dignity Players of Annapolis.

Enjoy music, hearty appetizers, wine and beer, hilarious entertainment, and a raffle full of fantastic items donated by generous local businesses. Dress casually, have a deliriously good time, and get to know a little bit more about Motivational Theatre—an up-and-coming organization seeking to improve and strengthen our community by reducing stigma and encouraging acceptance.

Please RSVP by September 18th. Want to keep your options open until the last minute? No problem, we'll make sure tickets are available for you at the door. Purchase tickets online, through email, or give us a call.
