Theatre Names New Executive Director

The board of directors of the Hugh Gregory Gallagher Motivational Theatre has named Robert Chauncey of Chestertown its first Executive Director. Chauncey has served as volunteer President since January 2010.

“I am truly humbled to have been elected as Motivational Theatre’s first executive director. I will do my best to live up to the honor,” remarked Chauncey.

A grant from the Prince Charitable Trust to structure Motivational Theatre for long term growth, and support from other groups and individuals, including board member Janet Hermans of Botswana, sister of the late Hugh Gallagher, enabled the board to create the paid position.

The board will elect a volunteer President to succeed Chauncey at its February meeting. Chauncey will continue to be a voting board member.
